

Office of the
Public Guardian

Plan for your future

Who will make decisions when you can't?
Ever considered Lasting Power of Attorney?

Your local
LPA Champions
are:

Office of the
Public Guardian

Plan for your future

Who will make decisions when you can't?
Ever considered Lasting Power of Attorney?

Your local
LPA Champions
are:

What is Lasting Power of Attorney?

A lasting power of attorney is a legal document that lets you (the 'donor') appoint people (known as 'attorneys') to make decisions on your behalf.

It could be used if you became unable to make your own decisions.

There are 2 types of lasting power of attorney:

- health and welfare
- property and financial affairs

You can choose to make one type or both.

www.gov.uk/office-of-public-guardian

What is Lasting Power of Attorney?

A lasting power of attorney is a legal document that lets you (the 'donor') appoint people (known as 'attorneys') to make decisions on your behalf.

It could be used if you became unable to make your own decisions.

There are 2 types of lasting power of attorney:

- health and welfare
- property and financial affairs

You can choose to make one type or both.

www.gov.uk/office-of-public-guardian